It shouldn't be a problem, but I will not be able to get to it today as I am going to be leaving for court shortly. Either tomorrow or early next week would probably be possible.

The defense attorney has filed a motion for "Notes taken relative to the chemical analysis concerning the drug certifications provided to counsel." Please advise if you are able to provide a copy of your file (including handwritten notes, if any), or let me know if you feel I should object and why. Thank you.
